There...

There in the distant sky

There, behind the answers lie

There lay the reasons why

You must go out and try

Enter...

Enter as life unfolds

Walk the unmarked road

Enter though it may seem cold

As if it was foretold

THOMAS, SO WHAT'S UP? HOW'S EVERYTHING I HAVE NOBODY TO TALK TO ABOUT THESE THINGS. WELL YOU LEFT TOPANGA ANYWAY, TAKE IT EASY DURING THE SUMMER AND SEE YA NEXT YEAR.

Faculty

Our faculty is a group of dedicated teachers who offer T.L.G., (tender loving guidance), with every lesson taught to us. In addition to the daily march of classes and exams, there were moments when teacher and student found themselves as friends in times of need and laughter. Thanks to our administrators and faculty, this school year will remain a memorable one.

Embarking On A New Horizon

The Frosh faced a long path ahead of them as they began their first step into high school. They started the year off by planting their own roots, and nourished it with sound leadership, spirit and togetherness. With these favorable elements on hand, they were well on their way to a successful year!

One Step At A Time

As the school year began, Maryknoll's newest and youngest additions to the family were often found wandering about the campus like lost sheep exploring new fields. Problems like grabbing the wrong set of books and going to the wrong classes were other difficulties that the Freshmen confronted. However, they soon managed to fit into their new surroundings with the help and continual support from their "big brothers and sisters."

Pitching For A Winning Year

The Freshmen got their feel of their first "boogie on" field day, which is a traditional favorite for Maryknollers held annually at Ala Moana Park. The day was filled with enjoyment and delight and offered students some extraordinary learning opportunities.

Football, baseball, and volleyball were among the various games and competitive activities which afforded the freshmen a chance to exhibit their athletic skills and styles.

Frosh Band Together

As newcomers, Freshmen always experience difficulty finding a place to grow. This year's Freshmen handled this challenge by supporting each other in achieving unified goals. By unleashing their creativity and vitality they contributed much to Maryknoll and to their own individual growth.

An Energetic Outlook

The Sophs started the new year by casting off their image as "baby Frosh" and becoming worldly Sophomores of Maryknoll High. Throughout the entire year, these "Super Sophs" brought a touch of excitement and energy to our life at school. Look out MHS, the Class of 1980 has it together!

A Main Course Of Unity

The mountain of work that confronted the Booster Club in preparing this year's luau, was quickly reduced to a mole-hill with cooperation from each division, including the industrious Sophomores. From the physical labor of setting up, to the serving of the delectable food, the Sophomores contributed their share as true Maryknollers would. So let the Sophomore spirit shine on!

Spreading The Season's Joy

The Christmas holidays generated much excitement among the Class of 1980 as they took one giant step towards becoming full-fledged Sophomores. By immersing themselves in Maryknoll's traditional winter events, the shining Sophomores proved that they had their act together. They brought their enchanting voices to the Battle of the Choirs, their joy to the Christmas party and their mellow moods to the Winter Prom.

Spirit Leads The Way

February was a very special month at Maryknoll, filled with zany events that were part of Spirit Week and Homecoming 1978. Ranking high on the "spirit meter," the Sophomores achieved their position by participating in the Hair Day and the string contest, and by tying for first place in the flashcard competition. The strongest showing of Sophomore Power was exhibited at the games, where they left no doubt of their Spartan zeal.

Realizing The Times

"To share with each other the ideal that love and friendship is the greatest gift in life." With the words from their Alma Mater in mind, the Class of 1979 stepped towards another year with confidence and enthusiasm. By reaching out in care and involvement, the Juniors discovered trust and unity. They were a source of inspiration to their fellow students at Maryknoll.

The Joy Of Giving

"The Thanksgiving Jubilee" became this year's theme for "Turkey Day" as the entire student body created a vibrant atmosphere of celebration. The true Thanksgiving spirit was felt among the Juniors as they collaborated together to assemble and decorate a well-balanced basket of food. The result of their hard work was not only a fine showing in the basket competitions, but also nourishing and welcomed Thanksgiving meals for the needy.

Holiday Spirit In The Air

With Christmas just around the corner, the Class of 1979 set out to spread the season's spirit. It began with a spark as the Juniors shared their joy and exploded to capture first place in the annual Battle of the Choirs. They refreshed the audience with songs from the past and the present and made their star shine even brighter with their original "Christmas in the future." They continued to erupt by participating in the Christmas mass and distributed a flow of goodwill to neighbors and close encounters.

Unifying Gold

The arrival of new class rings is always reflected in the smiling faces of Juniors. This year was no exception as the Class of 1979 received their bands of gold in a brief ceremony held in the A.V. room. The individual character of each ring made them an important personal keepsake and a symbol of unity in the Junior division. And of course, the tradition of twisting their rings 79 times around their fingers wished them luck and good fortune for the forthcoming years.

Frosh Football

Off To A Fresh Start

This year the Freshmen of Maryknoll showed their spirit as nine promising athletes turned out for the Pac-5 Frosh football team. The pride and competitiveness they displayed will be an asset in upcoming Pac-5 seasons.

Varsity Football

Packers Pack 'em In

The Pac-5 Varsity Football Team kept moving on this year and made their presence known in the I.L.H. division. Our talented Maryknoll players gave the Wolfpack a "one-two" offensive and defensive punch that was instrumental in all of the Pac-5 games. Maryknoll players, teaming with those from Mid-Pac, Our Redeemer, Hawaii Baptist, and University High, combined to create a well balanced team which will definitely be a major contender for I.L.H. laurels in the years to come.

Improvements Mark Progress

Each year, Pac-Five's impressive performances become stepping stones for greater seasons to come. A host of Maryknoll players stabilized the Varsity lines, while powerhouse running back, Benton Kam, made bursts up the middle to keep the Wolfpack moving. Their versatility and depth was a key in their thrilling 27-21 victory over Damien.

Girls' Volleyball

Served Up Success

Volleyball attracted a lot of attention this year as both Maryknoll girls' teams were in the thick of things. The girls made their presence known against their antagonists. The J.V. squad added the Class "A" Championship to their credit, while the Varsity romped through their season and placed second in the Round Robin.

Boys' Bowling

High Hopes Spark Spirit

Spirit was the Boys' Varsity and J.V. Bowling Teams' greatest asset in the '77 season. Their antics on and off the bowling lanes kept their hopes high and the balls a-rolling. The Varsity added many new members to their line-up to join experienced veterans in team play. Meanwhile, the J.V. introduced fresh new talent to the world of Interscholastic League play in their weekly matches against strong opponents.

Girls' Bowling

Spared No Strikes

Although they faced tight competition this year, the Girls' Varsity and JV Bowling teams managed to place in the Round Robin and captured both Class "A" titles. The Varsity also qualified for a berth in the State Tournament. Leading them in the charge was new head coach, Mrs. Edie Hamabata, who also coached the Boys' Bowling teams in their regular season.

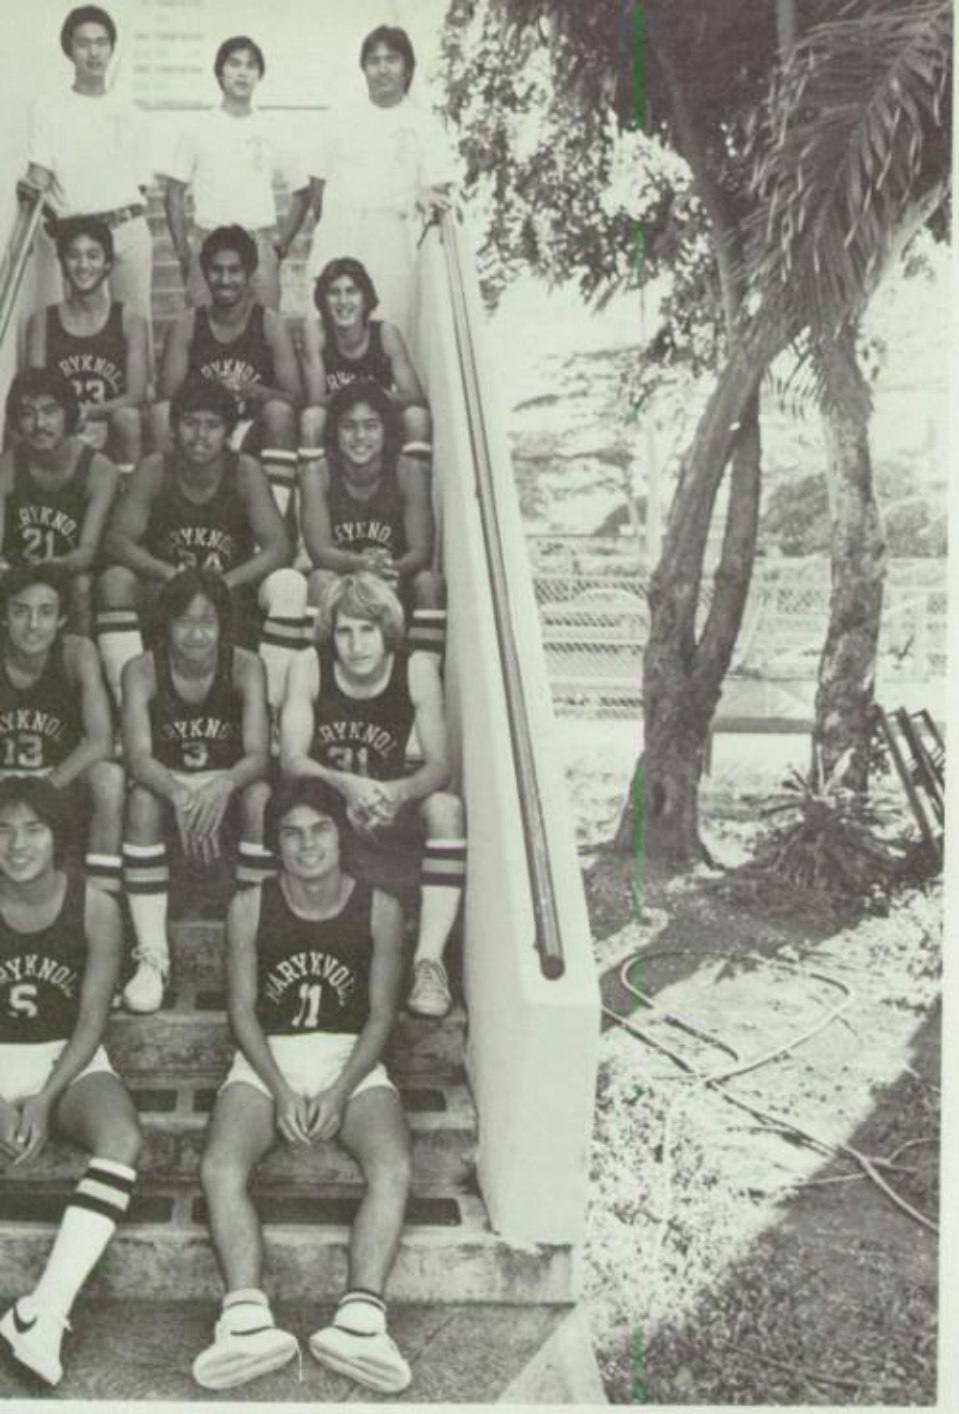
Frosh Basketball

Stand Clear, We're Here

This year's Frosh basketball team was truly a brand-new team, with fresh talent surging in from the junior high and two new coaches. Taking charge over the Frosh team this year was Wayne Peterson and his assistant Mike Rene, who was an All-Star Spartan player two years ago. A joint effort from both coaches and the players helped compile a modest record for the season.



JV Basketball

Spartans In Command

This year, the JV basketball team, coached by Peter Estomago, displayed stamina and sportsmanship. The team practiced hard, mastered intricate moves and created exciting offensive and defensive plays. Their determination and team spirit quickly won the respect of their opponents and gained the support of parents, boosters and fellow students. Each player experienced a season of hard training in efforts of building a championship team.

Varsity "A" Basketball

A Promising New Team

In past years, Maryknoll High School has had only one Varsity Boys' Basketball team. This year another landmark in Maryknoll athletics was established, when the mighty Spartans managed to organize still another team. Under the sound coaching of Joe Yasutake, the members of this new team accumulated much experience and made this new venture a successful one.

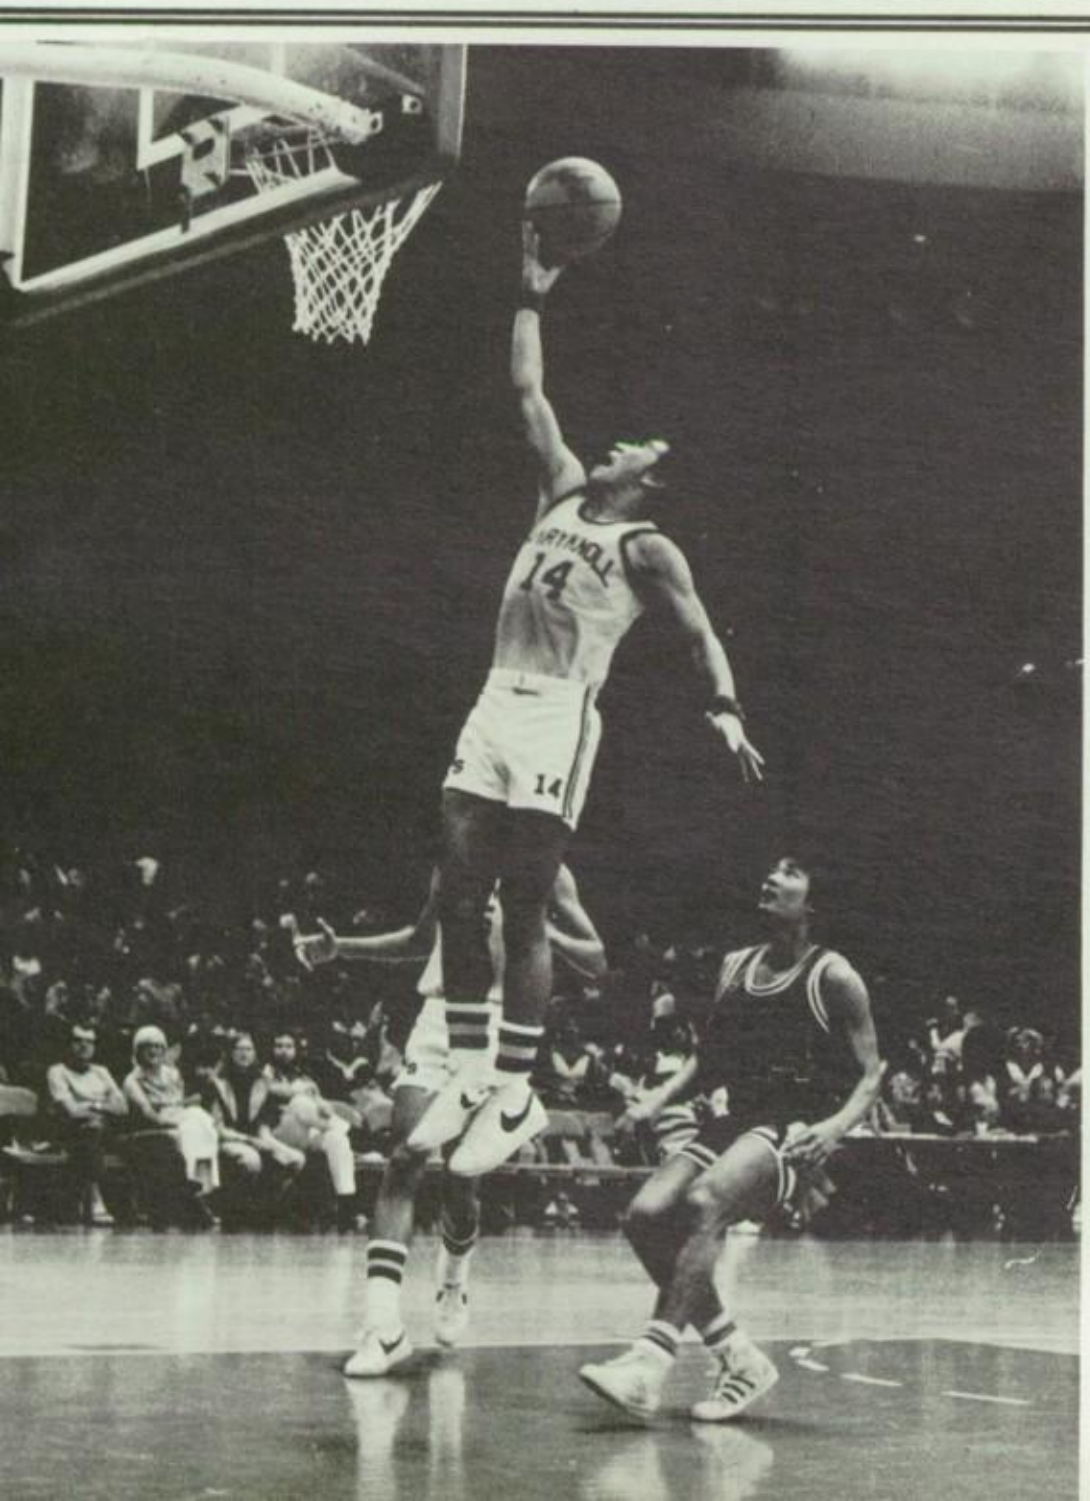
Varsity "AA" Basketball

Another Year On Top

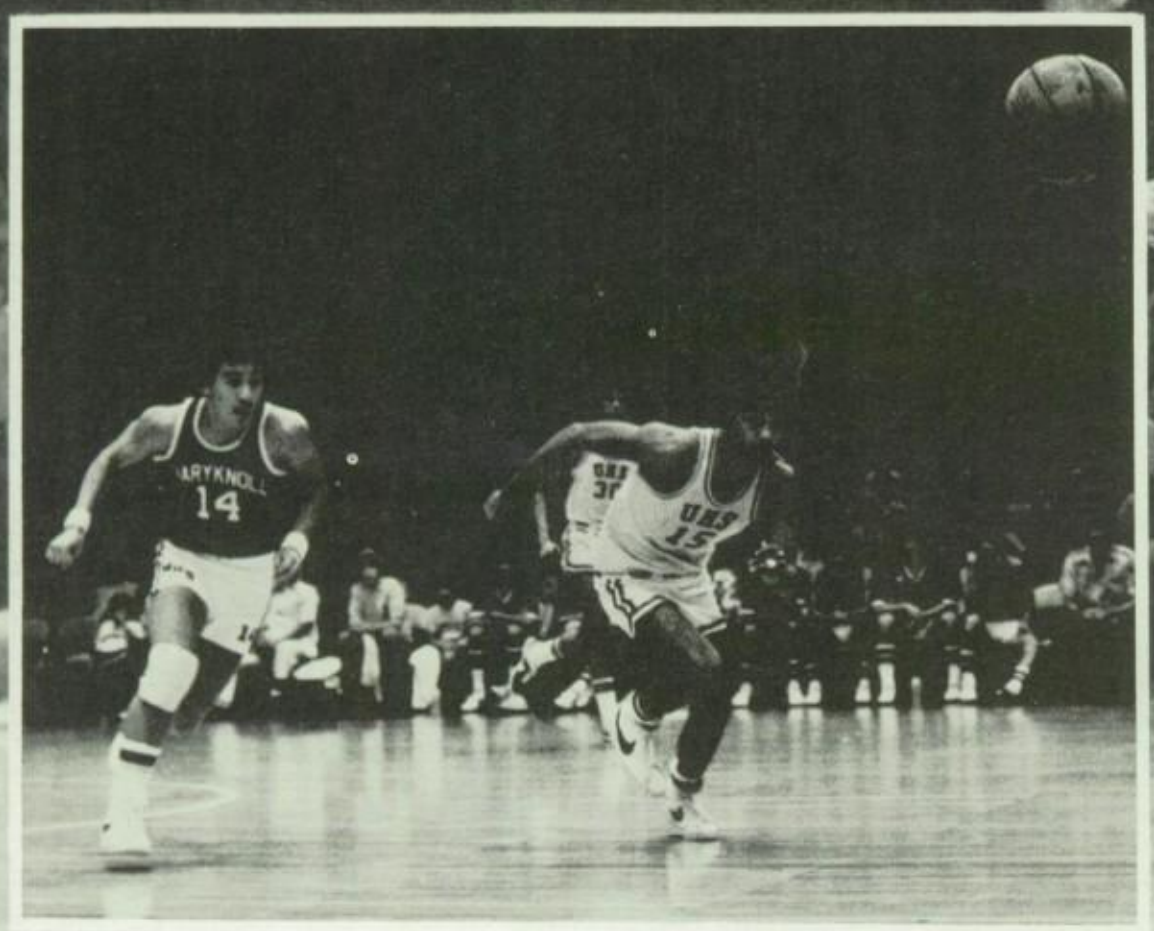
The great success of the mighty Spartan "AA" Basketball Team was accomplished through many hours of training and practice. The fierce and confident court play of the Spartans was first displayed in pre-season play when they emerged victorious in the Farrington, Punahou and Mid-Pacific Tournaments. They amassed an impressive record of 12-2 and that same determined spirit that motivated them going in pre-season, kept them pressing for excellence all season long.

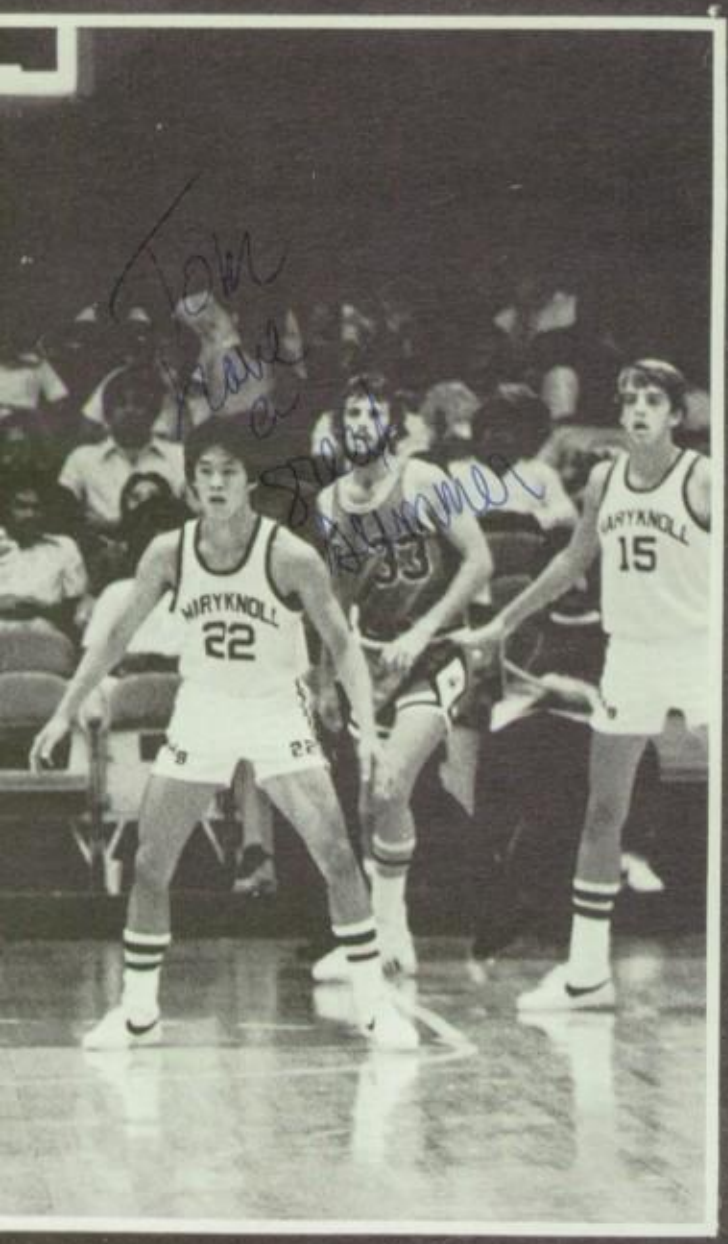


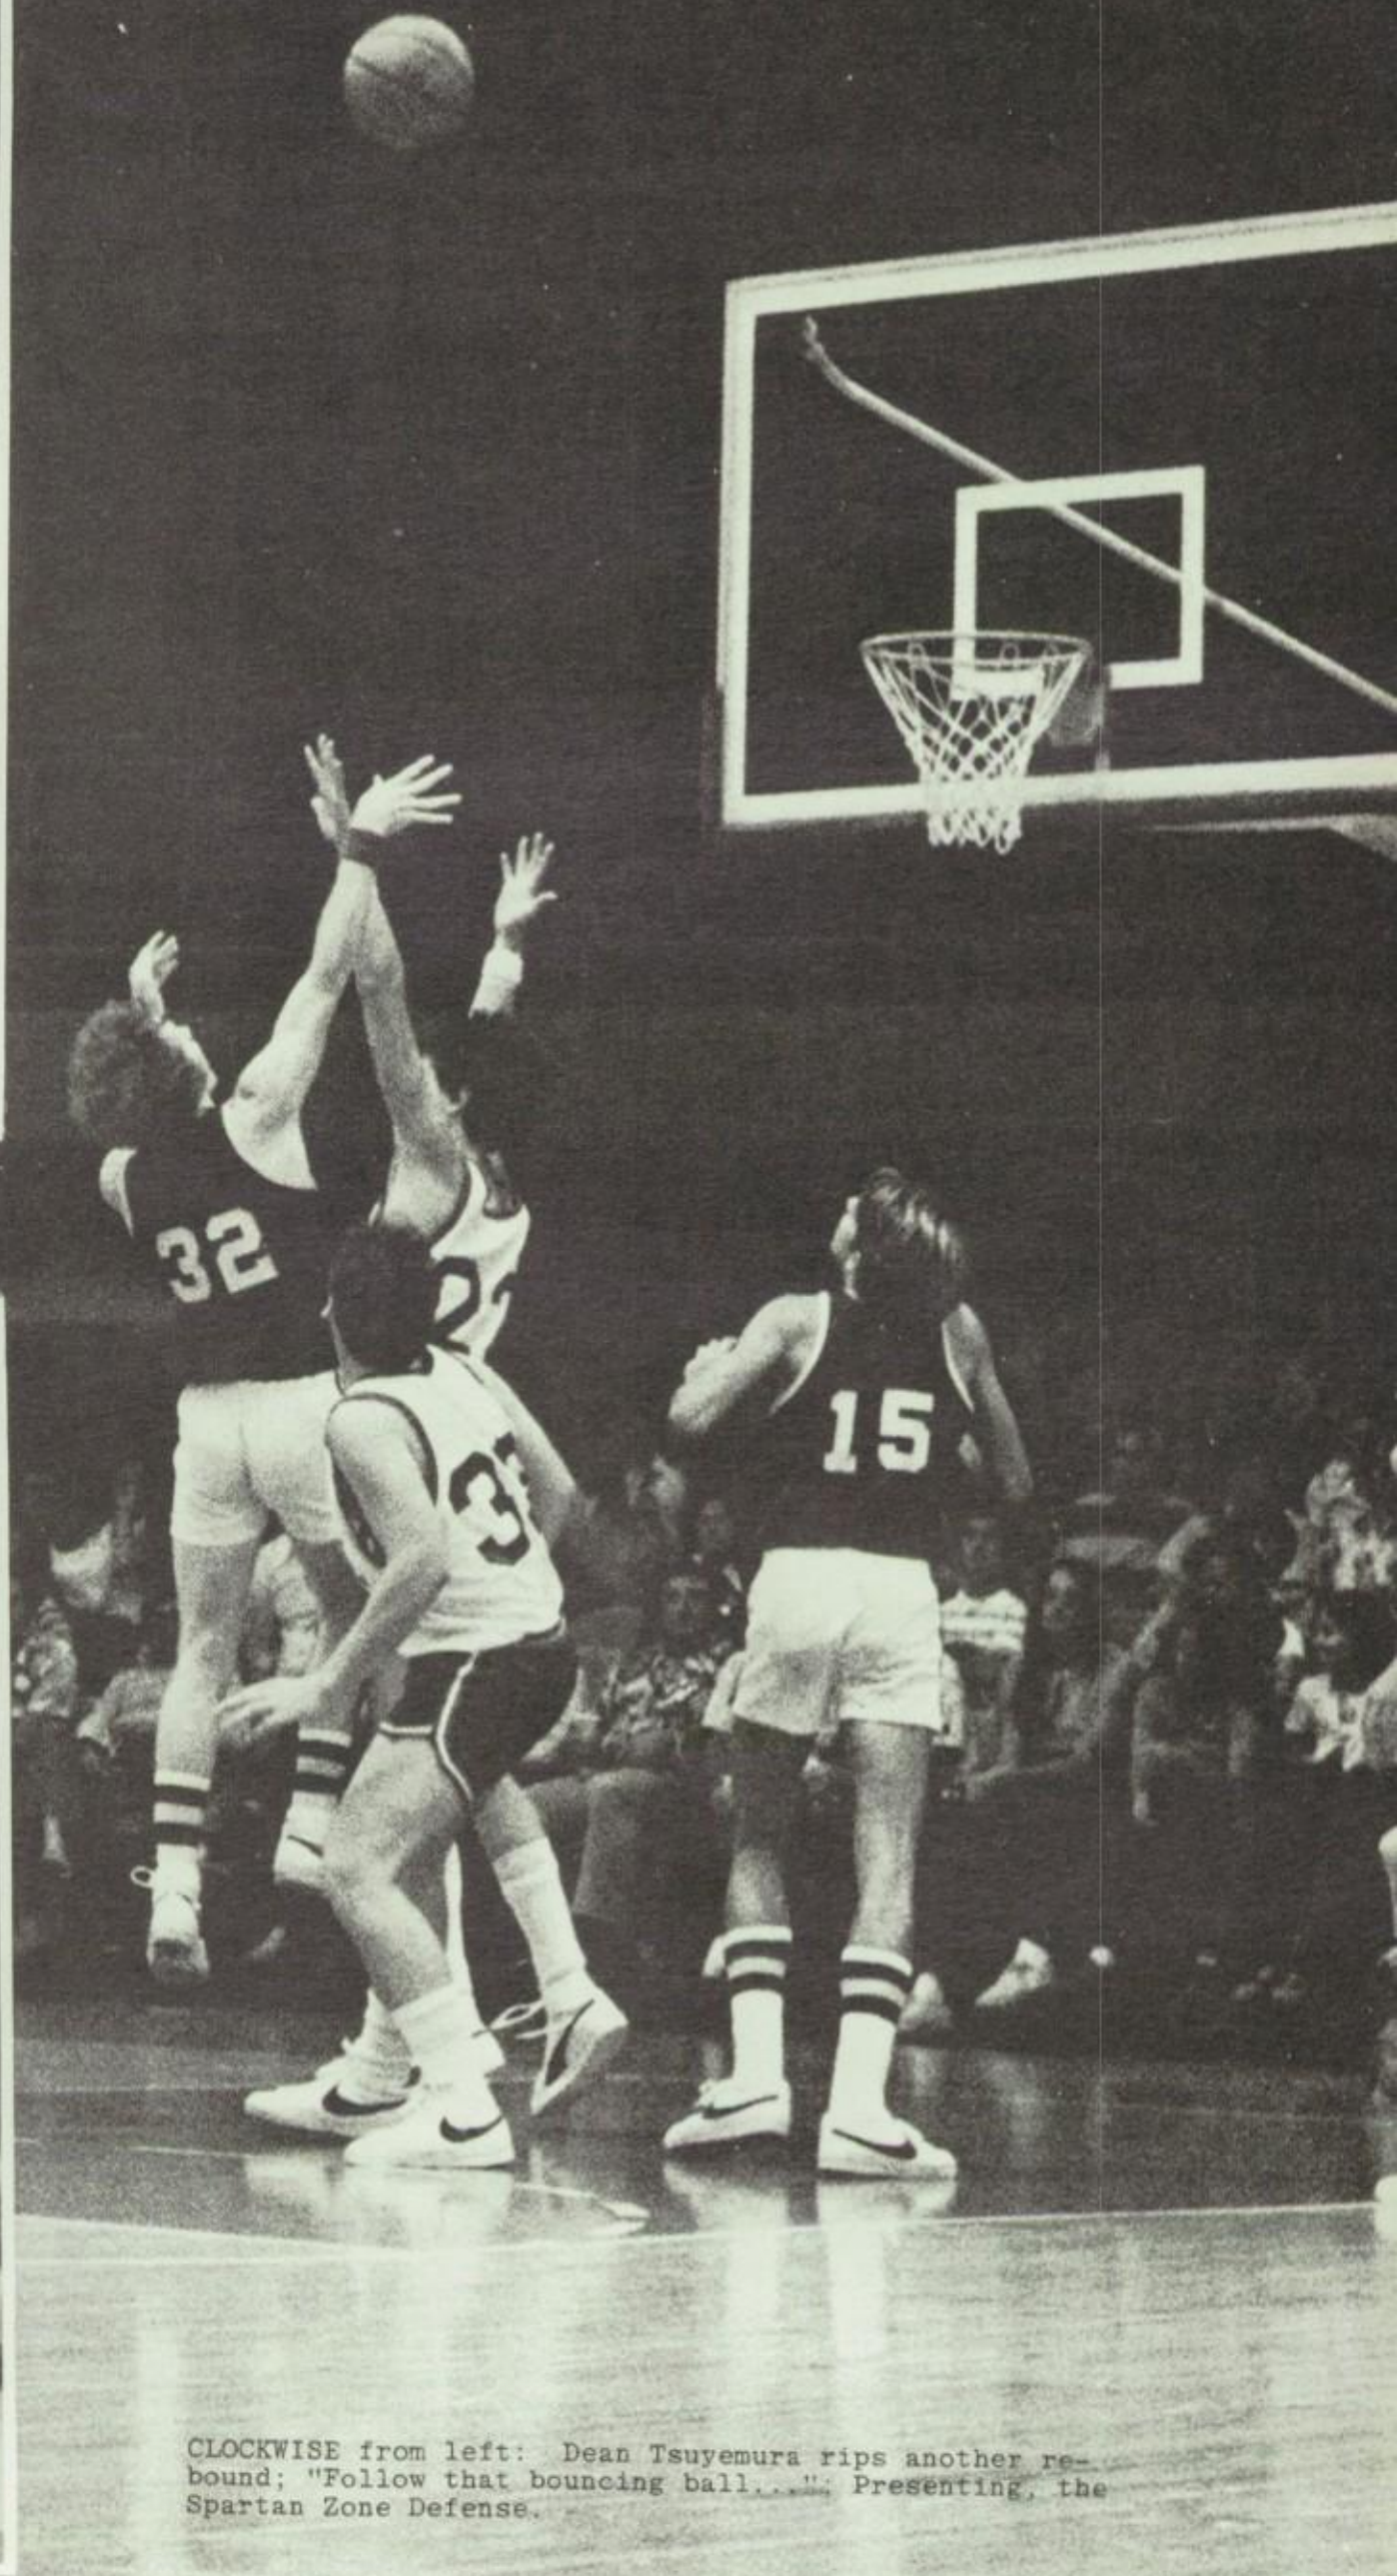
Varsity "AA" Basketball

Spartanmania Plagues Maryknoll

The Maryknoll Spartans came alive again in the 1978 ILH "AA" basketball race. Their overwhelming performance in the league proved to everyone that a small school can be a major powerhouse. Everyone at Maryknoll was swept up by "Spartanmania" as the basketball team whisked its way through the season. A tenacious defense along with an aggressive offense carried the Spartans to a host of victories. Their polished display of basketball wizardry reflected the fine coaching of Tony Sellitto.







CLOCKWISE from left: Dean Tsuyemura rips another rebound; "Follow that bouncing ball..."; Presenting, the Spartan Zone Defense.

Girls' Basketball

Spunk Sparks Spartanettes

The performance of the Spartan girls in their 1978 ILH season leaves no doubt that Maryknoll's "golden touch" in basketball makes no distinction between the sexes. With young female talent, both JV "A" and "B" Teams outplayed their oppositions by using ball control and strong rebounding. The Varsity Team, with many returnees from last year's championship team, proved to be invincible in the pre-season as they captured the Harper Tournament title. All three boasted impressive talent and records as they reaffirmed Maryknoll as a basketball giant in the ILH.

Girls' Tennis

Netters Knock 'em Down

Practicing hard and long, the Maryknoll netters attended many rigorous and stamina-building workouts. With a fairly large number of returnees on both the Varsity and JV Teams, the girls rallied confidently and powerfully through their first round of games. Maintaining their poise and determination, they returned with a strong showing in the second round, winning a place in the playoffs for the "A" title.

Boys' Tennis

Team Spirit Promotes Victory

The Boys' JV and Varisty Tennis Teams, under the guidance of Coach Randy Tom, pulled through the season with many victories. The spirited boys' team won handily over their opponents. Both teams were well rounded and possessed depth due to an abundance of returnees.

Pac-Five Team Sports

Spartans Add To "Pack" Power

Although they are not as widely publicized as other sports, the teams described on this page are important to the faithful numbers of spectators that attend their games. Each team is affiliated with Pac-Five, an organization that permits smaller schools to compete against larger schools.

Included in the Pac-Five field of sports are track and crosscountry, wrestling, swimming and soccer--the latest arrival. Track and crosscountry had a terrific season with individuals performing brilliantly in both ILH and State meets. Seasoned and talented athletes led Pac-Five to a superb league performance in wrestling. Though equipped with young members, both swimming and soccer teams emerged as tough representatives in league competition.

JV Pep Squad

Get Together...

Superb overall performances and tremendous spirit characterized this year's Junior Varsity Pep Squad. These enthusiastic bunch of noise makers never let a dull moment pass them by as they moved on the court with as much poise and skill as the players in the game. The squad is composed of a well-disciplined group of girls who do their job well with careful planning and expert timing.

Frosh Pep Squad

All Together...

Under the guidance of Marcie Moniz and Vicki Arii, the nine girls that make up the Freshmen Pep Squad learned the basic cheering rules and fundamentals. They put together an excellent routine of splits, kicks and jumps that kept the fans cheering and at the edge of their seats.

Varsity "A" Pep Squad

Let's Get Together...

The formation of a new Varsity "A" Basketball Team brought additional strength to Maryknoll's athletic program. To complement this new addition, a Varsity "A" Pep Squad was organized to spur the "A" team toward a strong season. Like their team, the squad gave their all as they displayed unlimited energy on the sidelines. These girls kept their voices up at a roaring level and led the crowd in a number of inspiring cheers.

Varsity "AA" Pep Squad

...Right Now!

No Maryknoll team would be complete without the support and vigor of the Varsity "AA" Pep Squad. At every game their loud roars and fancy footwork led the crowd in song and cheer to encourage a Spartan victory. Their unique rhythm and style added a new dimension to our sports scene. It is another way of showing Spartan spirit in STYLE, COLOR, EXCITEMENT, ENERGY, ENTHUSIASM, and SPIRIT! They really know how to say "R-O-W-D-I-E"!

Booster Club

Boosters Boast The Best

Were you wondering who those grown-ups dressed in white shirts holding maroon and gold pompoms at the Spartans' sports events were? Well, they are Maryknoll's very own Booster Club! The members of the Booster Club donate much time and energy to support the sports program at Maryknoll. In addition to attending games and meetings, the Boosters organize many fund-raising projects. This includes their annual luau which was once again very successful. With the donations received, they were able to provide the high school with another van.

Student Body Senate

Striving For Unity

The 1977-78 Maryknoll Student Senate had an unprecedented year of accomplishment in student leadership. Outfitted with intelligence, inspiration, a sense of humor and a decent wardrobe, they served as an open channel of communication between the students and the administration. The Senate kept us informed throughout the year with their perkey daily announcements. They also accepted the complicated challenge of managing numerous school activities.

SLO

Making It Happen

The Student Leaders Organization is the combined efforts of the bright young leaders of Maryknoll High. Members include homeroom and division officers and committee heads who work under the supervision of the Student Senate. Through the merging of different minds and the sharing of fresh new ideas, these students pieced together what was to become an exciting school year.

CLOCKWISE from right: "What kind of system is this?"; the Interschool Committee with chairperson Kathy Wong and advisor Ms. Diane Lee; NHS president, Pearla Relator, pins a proud new member; the National Honor Society with president Pearla Relator and advisor Mrs. Grace Williams; visitors from Mililani High school enjoy the sights of Maryknoll.

NHS

The Studious Side Of Maryknoll

The National Honor Society is a nation-wide organization consisting of students who have attained scholastic achievements. Membership is not limited to just the academically inclined, but also takes into consideration the students' leadership qualities and involvement in school and community activities. This past year, NHS members participated in different fund-raising events to contribute to their scholarship fund.

Interschool Committee

Gaining New Exposure

The Interschool Committee works to cultivate a good feeling between Maryknoll and other high schools by sharing different opinions and experiences. Throughout the year, members took turns hosting and visiting students from various schools. Participants of interschool activities were exposed to new learning and teaching methods. Because of their interests and initiative, the Interschool Committee has promoted a deeper understanding within the educational system.

Math Club

Chalk One Up, For Us

If you think math is for squares, maybe you aren't looking at it from the right angle. Equipped with acute perception, the Math Club found excitement and adventure in the complex world of numbers. These computists shared their unique "slant on things" with their fellow math enthusiasts by competing in the Oahu Math League. MISSING: MATH PRO SHANE

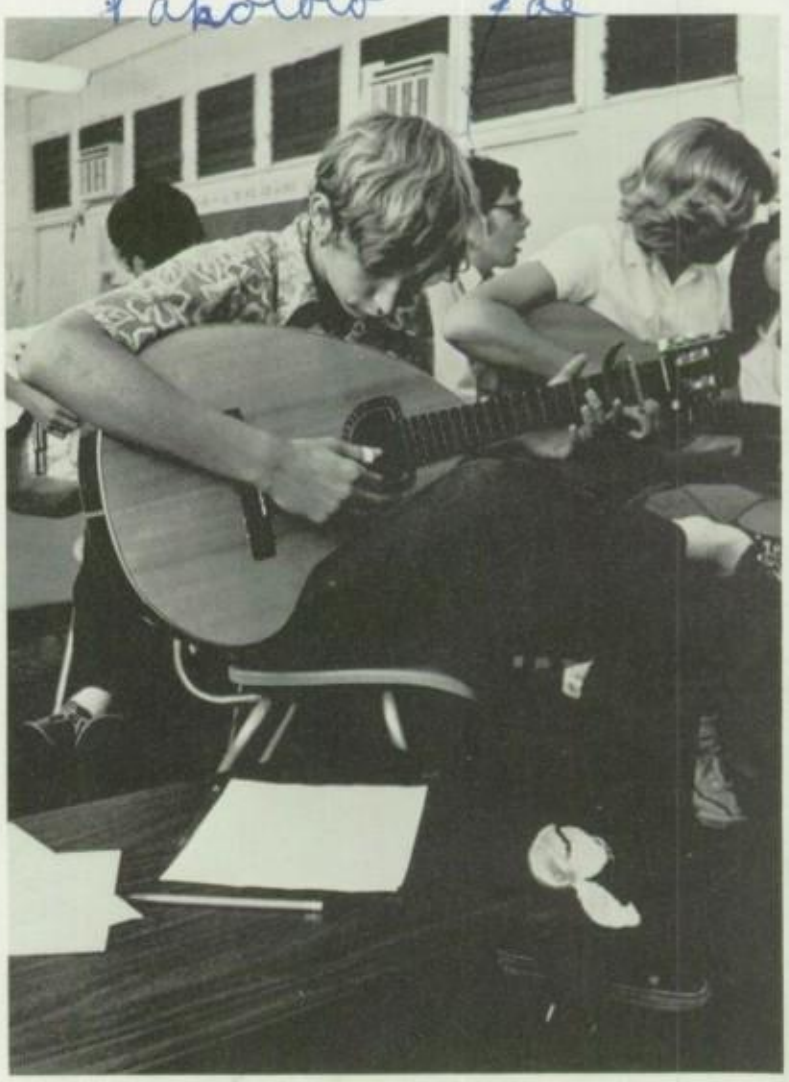
Chi Rho Knoller

Making Headlines

The Chi Rho Knoller set its presses in motion as the news of the school year poured through its doors. Co-editors Steph Dalit and Fred Soong, along with a competent staff of reporters, relentlessly labored over rough drafts and mounting boards to keep their readers informed and entertained.



CLOCKWISE from above: "Steph, how do you spell Chi Rho?"; the Chi Rho Knoller Staff with co-editors Fred Soong and Steph Dalit and advisor Mr. Frank Mattos; the vivacious Vicki Arii spins a tale of wonder; the Speech and Drama Club with advisor Mrs. Mary Beth Sandla; the Liturgy Committee with head Greta Zerbe and advisor Sr. Angela Brennan; Joe Moylan on guitar solo.

Liturgy & Drama

Stop, Look, And Listen

The Liturgy Committee was responsible for planning our masses and retreats. This devoted group made it their goal to strengthen the spiritual unity of the student body. They gave us hope, trust, guidance and understanding throughout the school year.

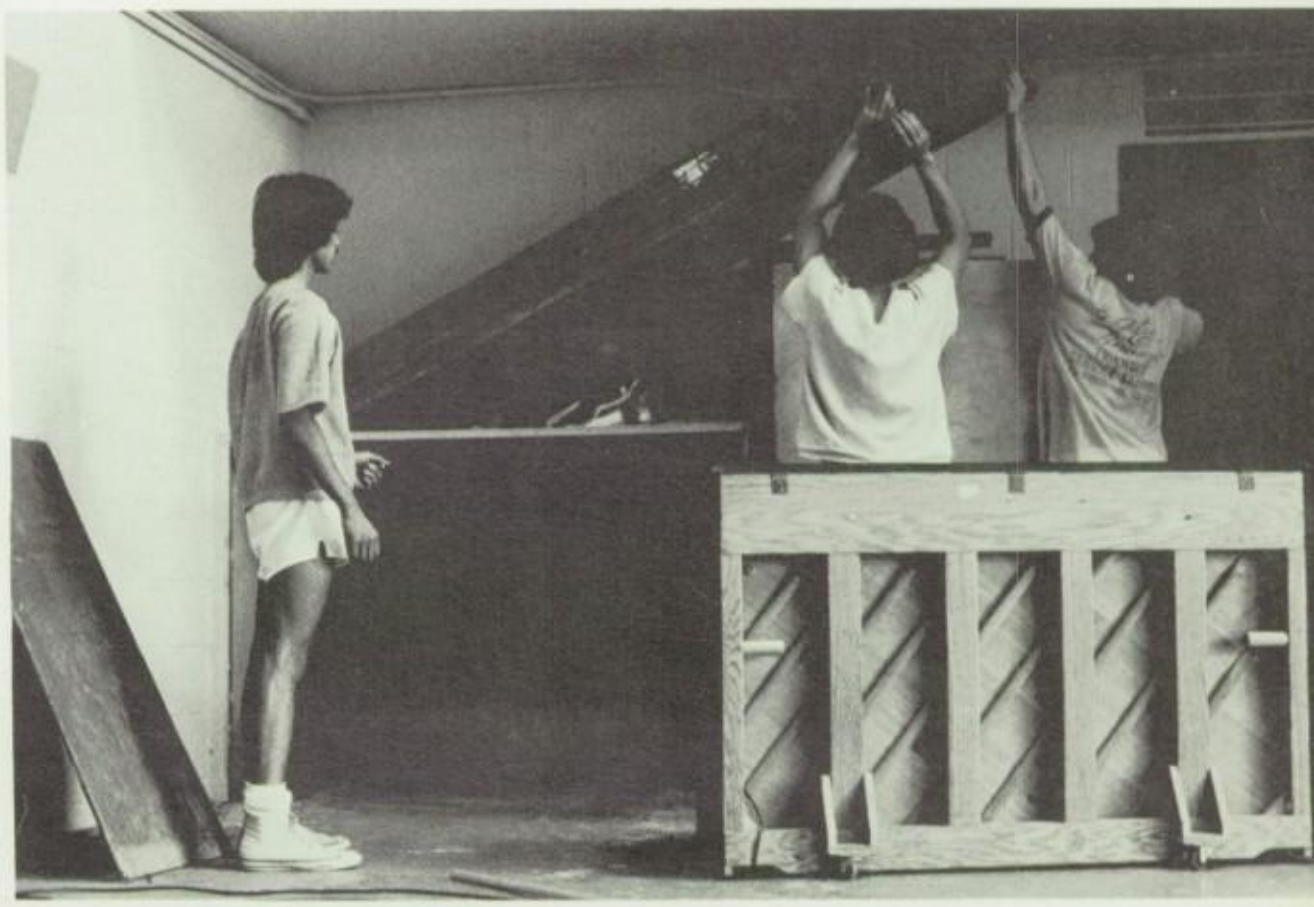
This year the eager orators of Maryknoll's Speech and Drama Club unleashed their talent and creativity at various speech festivals. Gifted speakers captivated their audiences as they brought to life colorful characters of fiction. Members also performed original oratories and impromtu speeches.

Hui Kokua

People Helping People

Helping and caring for people is what Hui Kokua is all about. Members of this organization showed their concern for others by raising funds for various causes throughout the year. One of Hui Kokua's most rewarding projects was their annual Christmas party for the children in Waianae. The group also participated in the Walk for Mankind.

CLOCKWISE from below: "C'mon you guys, heave ho!"; "Here comes Santa Claus, here comes Santa Claus..."; Hui Kokua with co-heads Lourdes Lee and Agnes Hui and advisor Sr. Grace Wilson; Jenella Stephenson gives moral support to some little friends; the Service Committee with co-heads Shawn Fonseca and Libby Fabro and advisor Mr. Ron Flegal.



Service Committee

Behind The Scenes

Working behind the scenes, the Service Committee efficiently set the stage for 1977-78. These capable students took the responsibility for the countless techni- preparations. The Service Committee performed their duties competently, which was apparent in the smooth running of the assemblies of this past year.

Glee Club

Singing In Perfect Harmony

The Glee Club is a collection of exuberant young people with a wide range of voices. These talented students spread their joy and energy by performing for the aged at the Arcadia. The Glee Club also demonstrated its musical abilities at this year's Battle of the Choirs.

Assembly Committee

The Show Must Go On

The Assembly Committee labored diligently to present the Student Body of Maryknoll High School with interesting and informative assemblies. The productive group members skillfully organized student gatherings. Working together with other organizations, the Assembly Committee aided student communication and self-expression.

Spirit Committee

Generating Some Spirit

The Spirit Committee is a group of animated and energetic characters who eagerly planned the dynamite activities for the 1977-78 school year. Spirit projects such as Acquaintance Week, Aloha Week and Homecoming, served to give Maryknoll's school spirit a tremendous boost. With their enthusiasm and ingenuity, the Spirit Committee created an action-packed year of fun and excitement for all to participate in.

Pep Club

Yes We Can !

This year, the Pep Club inspired everyone with their unconquerable Spartan spirit. Involved members painted rousing posters and raised money. These students were particularly active in showing their support by cheering their Maryknoll teams on to numerous victories.

Social Committee

Let's Dance The Night Away

The Social Committee is a group of hard-working students who planned our monthly dances this past year. Its members went through the process of advertising, printing tickets and hiring super bands. Because of their efforts, the dances were exciting events where music and laughter filled the night air.

CLOCKWISE from above: The Social Committee with co-heads Lydia Bolosan and Cathy Ching and advisor Mrs. Betsy Gunderson; the Prom Committee with advisor Mrs. Daryl Koreyasu; Prom members start advertising for the winter affair; Social profits pour in; "Yuck, ten more dance tickets to sell!"

Prom Committee

A Touch Of Class

Dried strands of maile and pikake leis are all that remain to remind us of the two most memorable nights in the school year. Thanks to the thoughtful and imaginative planning of the Prom Committee, the Winter Ball and Junior-Senior Prom were huge successes. The Prom Committee tackled the mountain of last minute tasks including the designing of bids, decorations and reservations to create an evening of delight and elegance.

Japanese Club

Meeting the Rising Sun

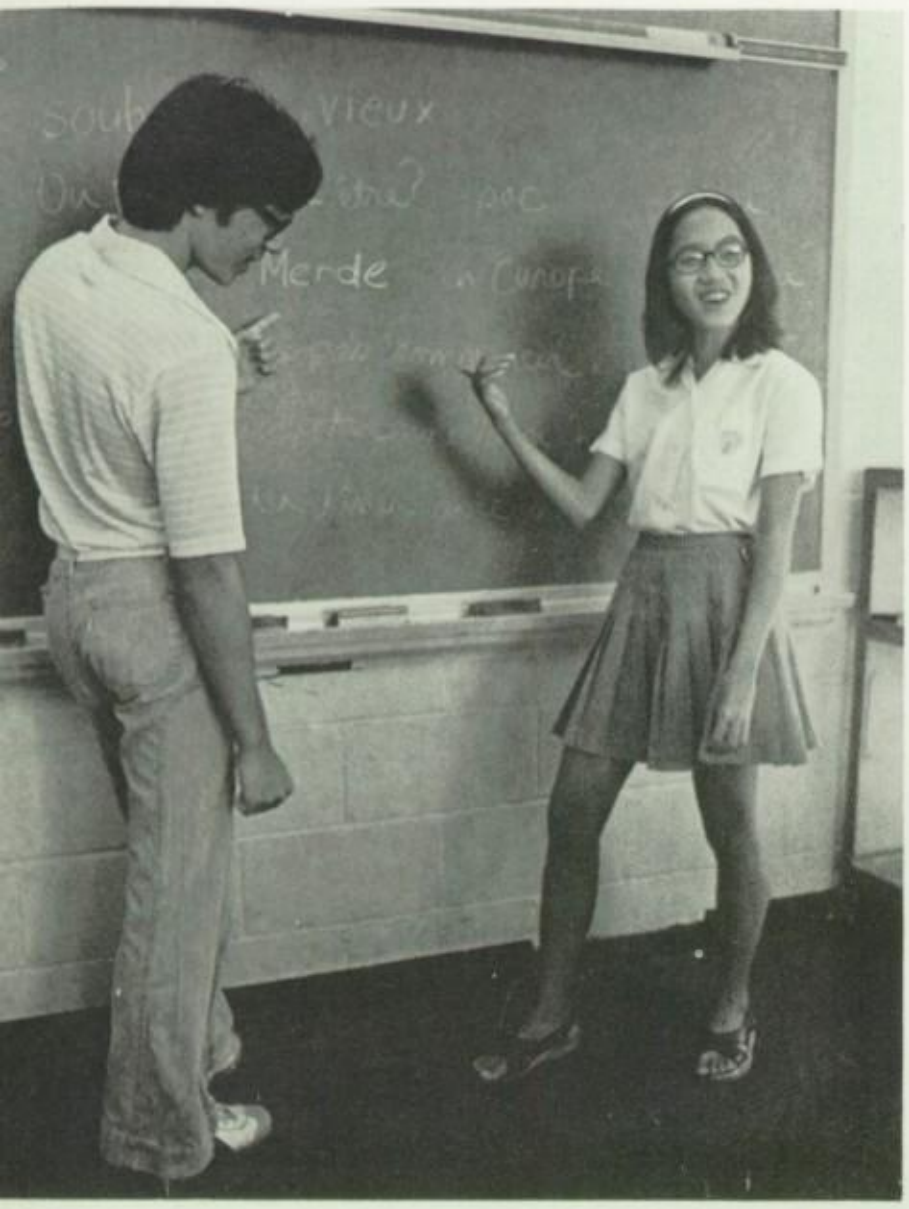
Shiawase, this year's Japanese Club, means happiness and good fortune. Members indeed brought happiness to many. The club's Christmas project was to bring holiday cheer to the elderly residents of the Kuikini Home. Besides this, Shiawase sold candy, baked goods and sushi in order to raise money for their Easter trip to the Big Island.

CLOCKWISE from above: Hawaiian students keep the beat; the Japanese Club, Shiawase, with president Gerianne Watanabe and advisor Mrs. JoAnn Livingston; the alert Eri Shibata stands guard over the sushi; the Hui O Kahalaopuna with president Kahiwa Aki and advisor Mrs. Betsy Gunderson; "Great resemblance, don't you think?"

Hawaiian Club

Hui O Kahalaopuna

The spirit of Hawaii has been kept alive at Maryknoll by the active members of the Hawaiian Club. This group participated in an assortment of activities this year, ranging from fund-raising to helping in the annual Aloha Week festivities. The Hawaiian Club also visited the Polynesian Cultural Center to learn more about the Hawaiian way of life.



French Club

Crème de la Crème

"Viva la France!" is the cry of the sophisticated French Club. The club is comprised of students who share an interest in France and its customs. This year, the French Club participated in the Foreign Language Week activities and raised funds by selling delectable Gummy Candy Bears and fruit drops.

Spanish Club

Adding That Spanish Touch

The Spanish Club is an enthusiastic group of students who found a certain appeal in the colorful life of Spain. The Spanish Club members marched proudly in the Foreign Language Parade, and brought a touch of "ole" to Foreign Language Week at Maryknoll.

CLOCKWISE from left: The Spanish Club with president Dara Chong and advisor Mrs. Maria Haney; getting ready for the big fiesta; "Oh, so that's what it means!"; the French Club with president Karen Tom and advisor Mr. Glen Silva: "Aw c'mon, who's gonna miss a few packages?"; Gerald Watanabe and a friend take their daily siesta.

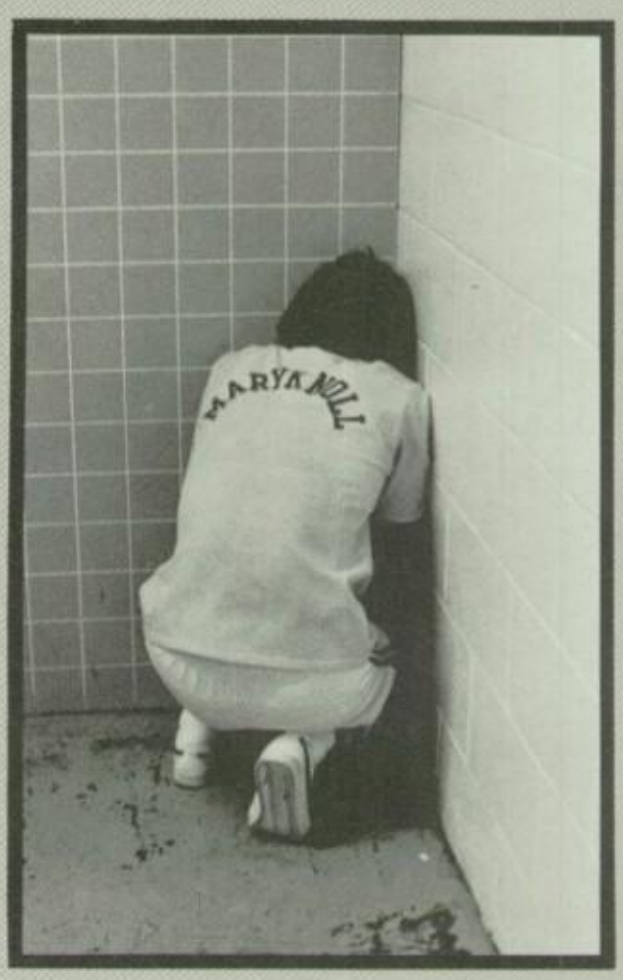
Nobody Else-But Us!

This year's Senior class had a special touch that no other class ever possessed. It was the ability to pull together at that last and final moment when all else seemed to be going wrong. In an all out effort, spirits would suddenly lift, and together we would pick up the pieces. Our struggles produced something to be proud of. A feeling of accomplishment would surround each Senior.

CLOCKWISE from below: "What did I do now?!?"; Revived souls returning from the Senior Retreat; Jennifer White knows all and tells all...; mellow Senior voices add a special touch to the annual Battle of the Choirs; "...(sniff)...I think I'm lost..."; "Love is..."; "Ahh-sooo--Confucius say you got good stuff!"; Cramming for finals?!? CENTER LEFT: Two of our more basketball enthusiasts. CENTER RIGHT: Just cruisin' the day away.

These special times have slowly come to a close. So many times we've said to ourselves, "If I could just do it all over again..." But life is a one-way road with no turning back. It's time to discover, explore and experience new ideas. We've made some mistakes along the way, but we've also done some astonishing feats. Isn't it funny, though, how we can look back and say, "That was us?!" Well, yes! That was us.



CLOCKWISE from left: "One-two-three-KICK!"; "If a roll of toilet paper is all you've got--forget it!"; Steph and Kathy contribute their artistic know-how; just another one of those l-o-n-g nights...; Another fanatic bird watcher?!?; One of our more intriguing Senior Division meetings...; Rory Auyong, our own resident tennis buff; "...and the hip bone's connected to the thigh bone, and the thigh bone's connected to the..." CENTER LEFT: "How could I miss that lay-up?!" CENTER: Wendel explains the right way to make a mistake. CENTER RIGHT: "You ought hear this stuff."

Acquaintance Week

Consider Yourself At Home !

Students running around with pacifiers in their mouths? Lollipops clutched in sticky fists? This is high school? You bet! It's Acquaintance Week 1977-78.

Screams of excitement mixed with laughter could be heard throughout Roger's Hall as students participated in games during the Acquaintance Week celebration.

The final day of Acquaintance Week found five freshmen facing the student body as the winners of "Da Kine Keiki" contest. That night all of the "keikis" went to their first "High School Dance."

INSET: The conch heralds the beginning of the show.

Aloha Week

Ku'u Home Aloha

"Aloha Kakou E Na Makamaka O Hawaii," were the words that welcomed Aloha Week to Maryknoll High.

This year, there were nine proud couples reigning over the Aloha Week festivities. An array of ancient hulas, chants, and dances, provided by Maryknoll's own talented people, cast a spell of wonder upon the audience. Aloha Week left all of us with a new sense of awareness about our Hawaiian heritage.

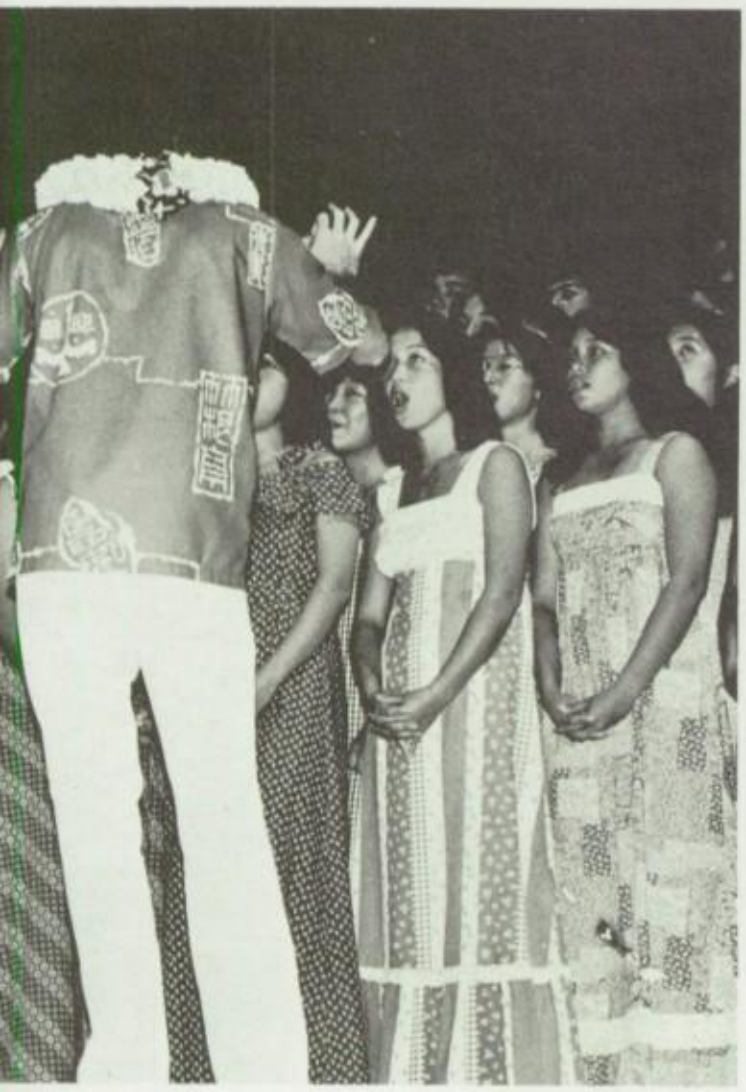
Battle of the Choirs

Bringing Joy To The World

The spirit of Christmas rang merrily throughout Maryknoll as the tenth annual Battle of the Choirs got under way. Every division put out their best effort after many weeks of practicing.

This year the Class of '79 emerged as the winner. They based their theme on Christmas: past, present and future. The Class of '78 came in second with tough competition from the Classes of '80 and '81.



Winter Prom

An Evening Of Sweet Serenity

December 20, 1977 was the night to remember as couples came to Maryknoll's annual Winter Prom. It was held in the exquisite surroundings of the Princess Kaiulani Hotel, where everyone danced to the sweet-sounding music of Serenity. The semi-formal attire lent a touch of elegance to the occasion. As the evening came to a close, the couples drew together for a final moment with the theme song "You and I".

CLOCKWISE from above: The bids were keepsakes of the evening's delight; the 1977 Winter Ball Court: King Richard Budar and Queen Stephanie Nishii and their attendants, Freshmen Jon Lam and Heidi Abundo, Seniors Edward Sanidad and Debra Ching, Juniors Debbie Tseu and Lester Ginoza and Sophomores Francene Chow and Warren Fabro; moments of closeness were enjoyed as couples danced together; signing the guest book was the first step to a night of enchantment; picture taking helped to keep the night's memories alive; Mei Chi and her date making a grand entrance.

Homecoming & Spirit Weeks

Close Encounters Of The ??? Kind

Excitement mounted as MHS Homecoming activities rolled into its first day. During Spirit Week, students went all out by dressing up in obnoxious apparel, taking on unusual appearances and tying inch-long strands of string together. Homecoming Week followed with even more stunts, including blind-man's basketball and a booth selling "kisses." To see who would reign over this year's court, nominees for king had to collect Love's wrappers and the nominees for queen performed in a talent show. All of these events prepared everyone for a most memorable Homecoming.

CLOCKWISE from below: "Don't stare, my friend is self-conscious."; "Hey there, big boy!"; steppin' in fashion; "Do they, or don't they? Only their hairdressers know..."; Baskin-Robbins rejects; The 1978 Homecoming Court with King Steven Tseu and Queen Pearla Relator and their attendants, the Juniors--Mark Silva and Gayle Miyagawa, Seniors--Richard Budar and Geralyn Lum, Sophomores--Warren Fabro and Kathy Linn, Freshmen--Edwin Fabro and Alicia Cashman. CENTER: Court nominees display their romantic flair.

Homecoming

We'll Take "U" One On One

Homecoming 1978 had finally arrived and with it came the float and flashcard competitions. The time and effort spent on creating the floats made each one outstanding and unique. The Seniors won the float contest with their entry, based upon their theme, "Spartans Get It Together." A new event was the flashcard competition in which the Sophomores and Juniors tied for first place. It involved students holding up small cards which combined to form a large message displaying Spartan Power. A furious basketball duel against University High topped off an exhilarating week.

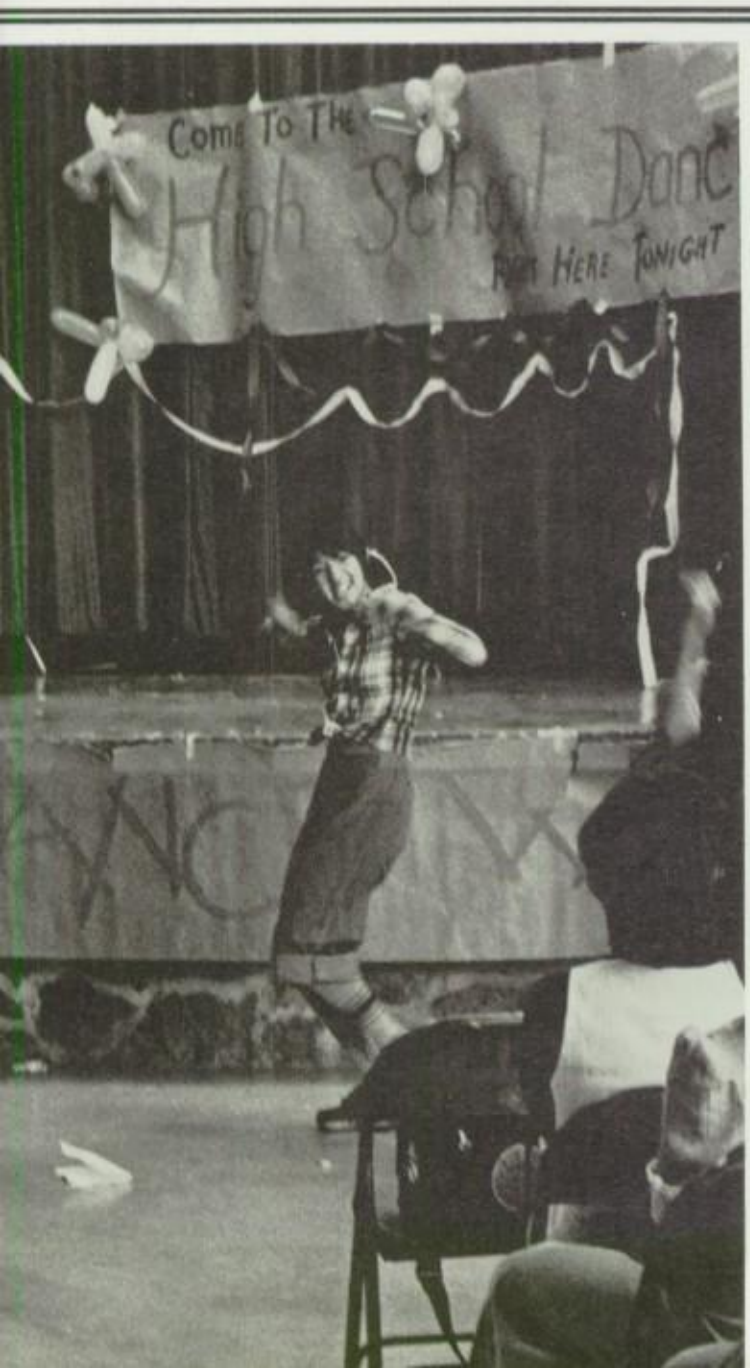
CLOCKWISE from left: Seniors "rise" to the occasion; Spartan dominates Frosh float; Sophomores display Spartan strength and muscle; Seniors stand proud!; Juniors take 'em to the cleaners; Freshmen flash their spirit. CENTER: The Spartan ball reigns over all.

CLOCKWISE from right: Jim Manley and Lisa Hogarty make some music; Mr. Kaufmann tells it like it is; Malcolm, Mr. Macho of Maryknoll, makes his grand entrance; Cheerleaders promote spirit at pep rallies; Santa surprises the Spartans with new height; Freshmen bear the burden. INSET: Maryknoll honors its athletes.

Assemblies

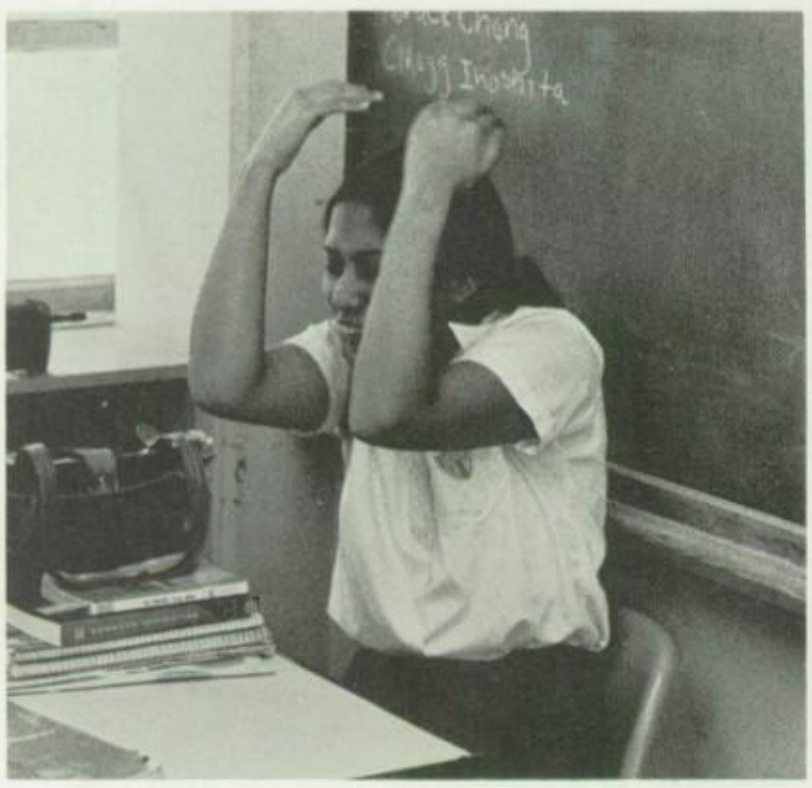
Something For Everyone

Throughout the year, the mention of "chair duty" brought agonized moans from the chosen division and announced the beginning of a student body assembly. This year, Maryknollers were provided with a variety of entertaining and informative assemblies. They ranged from stimulating pep rallies to annual programs like the Aloha Week Festival. Rogers Hall was the center of action for holiday celebrations, Aquaintance and Homecoming activities, masses and Mr. Kaufmann's occasional pep talks. Though assemblies brought a few bothersome details, they added zest to campus life and brought the student body together.

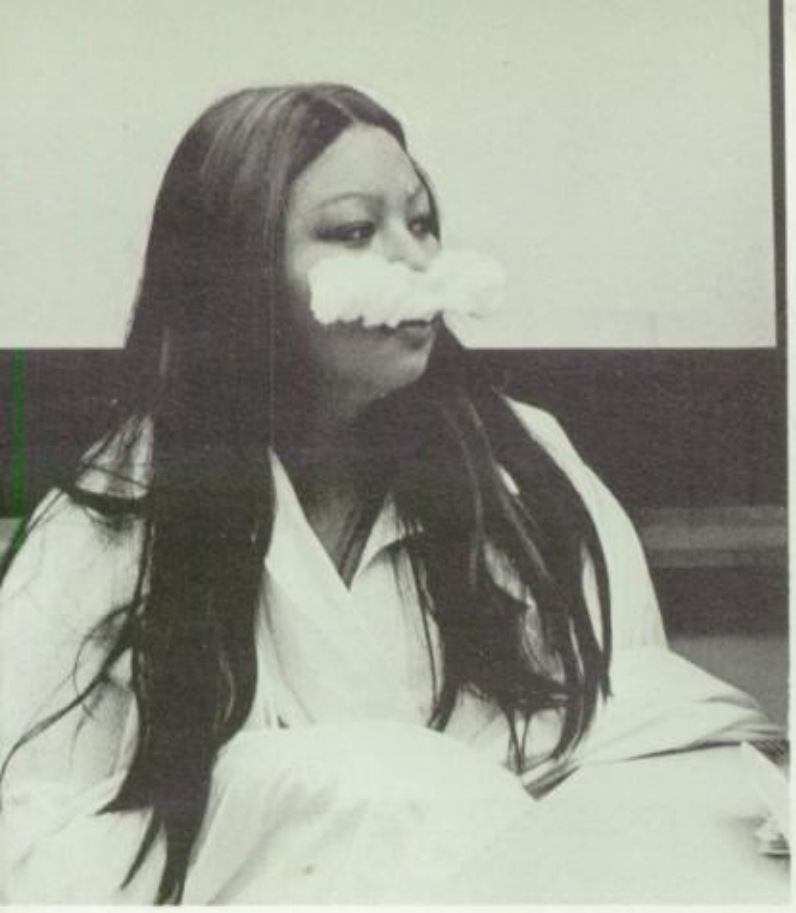


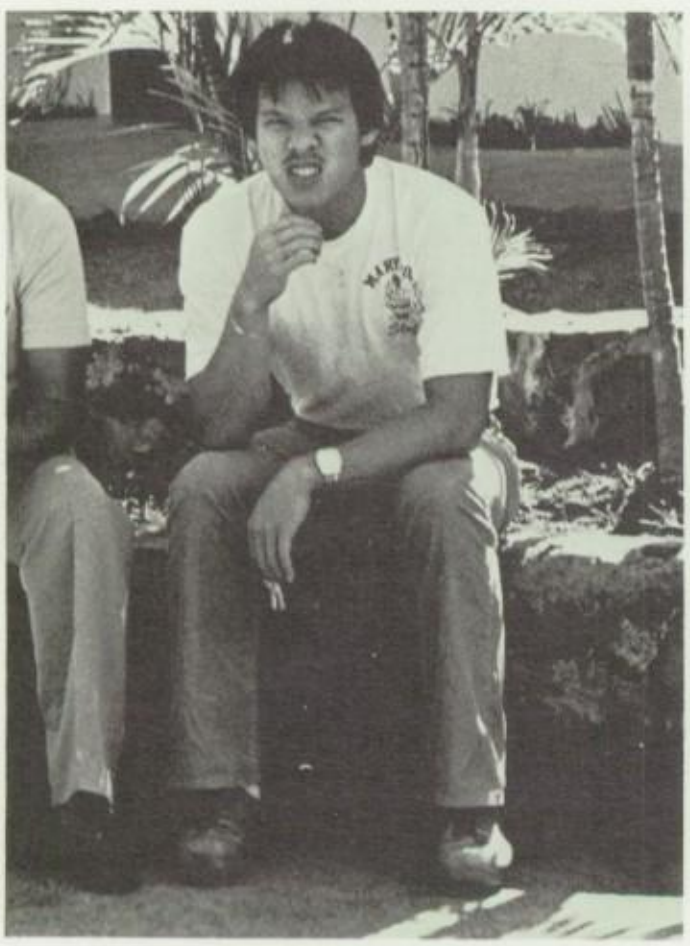
Express Yourself!

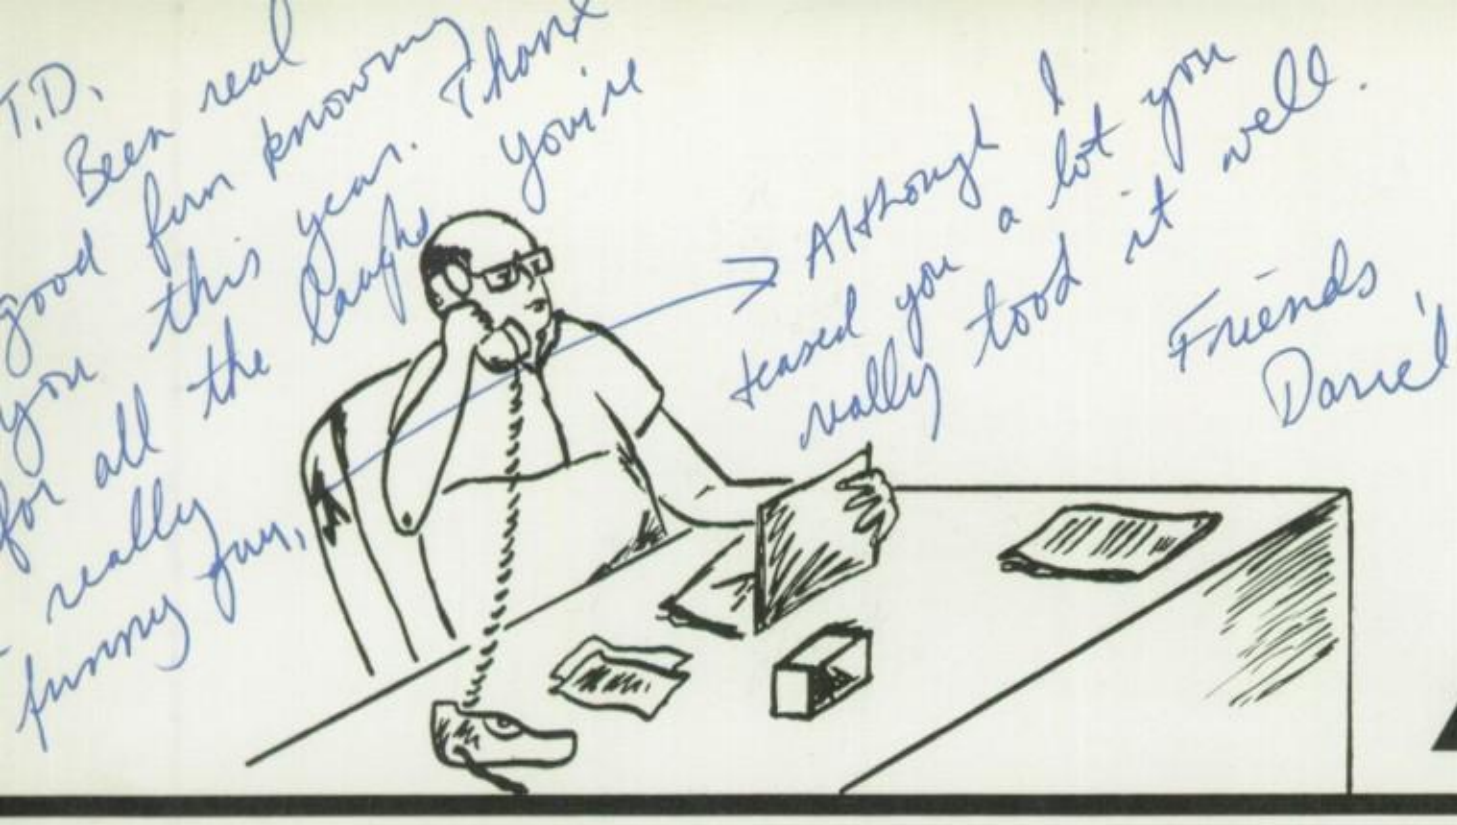
Every person has an inborn need to find his own unique form of self-expression. Maryknoll provides many organized opportunities for students to express themselves before their peers. Self-expression, however, sometimes refuses to be programmed and one must be willing to risk ridicule to be true to the moment and to oneself. The exhilaration of self-discovery and the joy of release awaits all of us. Go for it!



CLOCKWISE from above: "I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it!"; Cover girls: Rosalyn Dunaway and Alicia Cashman; ERA all the way!; "Left Guard keeps me dry!"; How do you spell relief?; "Yuck! There's a fly in my yogurt!"; "Eeee, the bird dropped a present on my head!"; The thrill of victory; "Well, that's it, folks!" CENTER LEFT: "I wuv you, Mommy!" CENTER: "Look, Tosh Mascara doesn't run!" CENTER RIGHT: "Duh, what's up, Doc!"







T.D.
Been real good fun knowing you this year. Thanks for all the laughs really funny fun,
Although I teased you a lot you really took it well.
